Fred Ohebshalom Joins Iranian Democrats

April 15, 2001-The Iranian American Democrats of New York announced today that Fred Ohebshalom has joined the organization's board of directors. A long-time resident of Great Neck, Mr. Ohebshalom has been quite active in community affairs—most recently, the president of the Sepharadic Heritage Alliance, Inc. (SHAI) and a director of the Beth Hadassah Synagogue-Iranian Jewish Center.

As a director of the Iranian Democrats, which recently received a leadership award from the North Hempstead Democrats, Mr. Ohebshalom joins Raymond Iryami, Parvaneh Sarraf, Jila Khani, Elham Kimiabakhsh, Michael Harounian, and Jacqueline Harounian. The organization's advisory board includes: Senator Charles Schumer, Congressman Gary Ackerman, Congresswoman Carolyn McCarthy, Assemblyman Thomas DiNapoli, Town Supervisor May Newburger, County Legislator Lisann e Altmann, Councilpersons Doreen Banks and Tony D'Urso, and Town Clerk Michelle Schimel.

Formed in 1999, the Iranian-American Democrats of New York has sought to educate the community about the American political system. "Through out our short history we have received the support and co-operation of many community leaders," said Mr. Iryami, the organization's president, "We are delighted that Fred Ohebshalom has taken the further step of joining our board. He will be a wonderful addition."
